

Ponies Association (UK)

Announces Winter Show President

Mrs Pearl Underwood, Show President presenting The In Hand Championship at the Ponies UK Winter Championship Show 2006

The 2007 Ponies Association Winter Championships are being held at the newly refurbished Unex Towerlands, Braintree, Essex where the excellent facilities will allow this event to become the highlight of the Winter Season. Six rings will operate every day from the 30th March – 1st April, incorporating a unique mix of open and championship classes to suit riders from all across the country – with additional classes being incorporated into the time table to cater for the very strong Home Produced section, The Lee Smith Members League which is being run as an accumulator with points being awarded to the first three placings and final presentations being made on the final day.

Along with the thrill of competing at these prestigious winter finals, Competitors and spectators will be able to enjoy the benefits of superb Ringside Dining whilst watching the spectacular thrill and razzmatazz of the evening performance.

Mrs Pearl Underwood from Bury St Edmunds continues in her role as Winter Show President for the Ponies Association (UK) Winter Championship Show. Mrs Underwood is no stranger to the world of showing having competed at national level with her all of her four daughters. Just Mrs Underwood's younger two daughters, Amy and Michelle, presently compete in the show ring.

Showing, as a family, has given the Underwood's a lot of pleasure and enjoyment, especially now as all their horses are produced from home. The girls have learn a lot from their hobby and believe it is a good disciple in their lives, teaching them important skills, such as, commitment, dedication and presentation. Without such a supportive husband and father, the Underwood's successes in the show ring would not have been possible.

The Ponies Association Winter Championship Show is open to spectators, so if you would like to spend an enjoyable day/evening, watching the thrills and spills of winter competition along with some wonderful ringside dining - come along to Unex Towerlands Equestrian Centre, Panfield Road, Braintree, Essex from Friday 30th March until Sunday 1st April 2007 for a winter extravaganza.
