Press Release

Ponies (UK) South Show 2nd May 2009

P(UK) South competitors enjoyed the sunshine on a very busy schedule for RIHS and HOYS Qualifiers.

The real stars of the show proved to be the performance ponies, which enjoyed the flowing course and perfect going.

Hettie Horler won a very hard fought Burghley Event Pony Championship on Ardfry Ahab. Competitors had travelled from across the country to obtain a ticket to ride at the Burghley Horse Trials.

A very high class hack section was won by Adam Winbourne on Opium Casa Leona, the 2008 HOYS winner.

Unfortunately horses were not forward in the Supreme Ridden which was awarded to Scarlett Worrow on Silver Fox. This was a great win for an M & M worker. Richard Telford on Kentchurch Galaxy the Kingsford Winner took the Reserve.

Mrs J Jordan's Llancloudy Gabriel the In Hand Supreme of the Show was pipped for the Supreme of the Show by Silver Fox with John Thomas's Gold Gem 1st Reserve, the winner of the In Hand Hacks and Cedarwood Competition Pony Championship.
